

UX/UI Designer

Sydney, Australia

Vamp's platform connects the world's best creators and brands. Our platform generates custom, mobile content by combining great technology with a full-service influencer and social media marketing approach.

We are on the hunt for a UX/UI Designer for our passionate, enthusiastic and rapidly growing team based here in Vamp HQ in Sydney. We are on a rapid growth journey and technically speaking, you get to determine its future.

Want to know what a day could look like here?

- Contribute to the discovery phase with user stories, research, competitor analysis, wireframes, user flows etc. and help define the problem and solutions.
- Translate creative concepts, insights, data and user research into prototypes to validate ideas with stakeholders and end-users.
- Design creative and on-brand UX/UI solutions for our desktop and mobile apps.
- Work closely with engineers during implementation and review final deliverables with an exacting eye, ensuring that layout, images, typography and UX is flawless and on-brand.
- Continually iterate and optimise the product experience for conversion and retention.
- Design at scale, considering internationalisation, CMS integration, accessibility, design system, mobile design and various technical constraints and opportunities.

What we are looking for

- You have experience creating designs solutions that meet the needs of a two-sided marketplace or platform. (Desktop and Mobile)
- You understand what drives a successful platform and can balance the trade-offs between meeting the needs of all customers and stakeholders.
- You have a portfolio with strong demonstrated experience developing new and inspiring UX solutions.
- You have a portfolio with strong demonstrated experience developing new UI components and interactions.
- You are excited by regularly coming up with new ideas shipping new products and features that address your users' actual needs.
- You are eager to communicate your ideas through prototypes visually
- You thrive in a collaborative workplace
- You appreciate big-picture thinking
- You are a problem solver that's excited by a challenge.

Why join the Vamp fam?

We are building the future of Influencer marketing globally right here in Australia! In just six years, we've grown to over seven offices globally, an invite-only network of 45,000+ creatives/influencers generating 100,000's of content with 10's millions of dollars running through our platform.

Deloitte has recognised us among the fastest-growing companies in Australia and all of Asia Pacific for four years running.

What is our mission?

We're building a single global platform to connect, create, manage, and report on your influencer campaigns for Instagram, YouTube, TikTok for Brands, Agencies, Influencers, and Talent Managers.

This is how we do it!

This is your chance to make a massive impact as part of a small, agile team. You'll work with top-notch developers, designers, and leaders to do things you never thought possible. We're passionate about three things;

- Creating the world's best influencer platform for brands, influencers and talent managers
- Creating personalised, engaging, excellent user-experiences
- Building a globally recognised Australian tech startup. Ozzie Ozzie Ozzie!
- The team is small and lean, with each team member contributing to the product's success. There are no middlemen or committees to deal with; execution is more important than anything.

Well, take you to the next level.

We want to make sure you're successful from day one, taking you to the next level by;

- Have a meaningful impact on the direction and future of the company while we are still small (~60 people). We're looking for thinkers and doers.
- An excellent office in the heart of Sydney. Between Town Hall and Wynyard. (with flexible work – esp. during COVID).
- Be a part of an international company, operating in Australia, Singapore, Tokyo, Jakarta, Dubai and London.
- Work closely with a deeply experienced and talented team to build the best product in our market.
- See the meaningful impact of your work on tens of thousands of actual users.
- Your shares (equity) in our company give you a real stake in your work.

Our team culture

It's essential that our team culture fits you - and provides a ground for growth, challenge, and satisfaction.

- Do you take ownership of the team's work even though you were not involved in its initial creation?
- Do you welcome changes without getting defensive of the time and effort already spent on a piece of work?
- Do you continually look at the current team processes and see ways to improve them?
- Are you looking for a place to learn and develop your professional skills?
- Are you seeking somewhere you can bring your whole self to work?

If you answer 'yes' to these questions, then we'd be thrilled to meet you.
